

ALEPH – Issue 02 – Spring 2021

SUBMISSION FORM

Designs for Life with Soha Sepehri
 Interior Designer
 & Co-Founder of Serac Studios

Interior Designer: Co-Founder, Soha is passionate about her work. She encompasses the entire role of SERAC Studios in Tehran as her main responsibility can be credited to her personal commitment. Notably, particularly her focus is a private and architecturally professional focus. She has been involved in the industry since her graduation in design and architecture. The key and most trusted factor of Soha is the perfect compromise for achieving fulfilling her clients' desires using high-end services and her style.

14 | ALEPH 11/2021

A Passion to Create

Nature is the essence of Soha's work. She pulls inspiration from the world around her and translates it into a project that is both functional and aesthetically pleasing. She believes that a project should be a reflection of the client's lifestyle and a statement of their design. She believes that a project should be a reflection of the client's lifestyle and a statement of their design. She believes that a project should be a reflection of the client's lifestyle and a statement of their design.

Soha is a creative person who is always looking for new ways to express her ideas. She is a creative person who is always looking for new ways to express her ideas. She is a creative person who is always looking for new ways to express her ideas.

A Collaborative Effort

Soha is a creative person who is always looking for new ways to express her ideas. She is a creative person who is always looking for new ways to express her ideas. She is a creative person who is always looking for new ways to express her ideas.

ALEPH 11/2021 | 15